

Ethics Code

1. We acknowledge the dignity of individuals and treat them with respect and justice.
2. We treat everyone with equity and avoid all types of discrimination.
3. We act in an integral, honest, responsible, objective, consistent, and impartial way.
4. We acknowledge and respect intellectual property and the merit of others.
5. We avoid all types of conflicts of interest, and should any arise, we keep the corresponding authorities informed.
6. We assume our commitment to information transparency and respect the confidentiality of the affairs that the Institution so defines.
7. We use resources in a responsible, austere, and efficient way.
8. We protect the environment.
9. We seek the Institution's benefit over personal benefit.
10. We comply with the rules, regulations, and policies that govern our activity at an institutional, national, and international level.
